To the eternal throne.

Misguided by thy will, A mether's love is thine, my boy,

Thou art my darling still.

Toss'd by the rugged sea, My only comfort was to weep— To weep and pray for thee;

Over thy follies I have shed,

Ah! many a bitter tear,

And tho' thou hast been wayward boy

Whilst thou went on the rolling deep,

And I have mourned for thee as dead,

Through all the passing year. Yet I have prayed that thou, my son,

That thy dear hands, and thine alone,

Might catch my latest breath,

Might close my eyes in death.

I do forgive thee now, my boy,

To see thy face again.

I'll yet forgive the past;

For I am happy, boy, to see Thou hast resurned at last

My sorrows are all o'er;

has he sent before him?"

For thou art here again, my boy,

And we shall part no more.

It frees my heart of pain. My bosom throbs alone with joy

Thou hast wandered far from me,

Yes, now this heart is filled with joy,

INTERMENTS IN LONDON -The closing of all

The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others com-petent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celetrated profession of the Edinburg College, footland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character.

The proprieter has been forced to make more extensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing demand for BEECH DROP.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 3. 1854. J. L. Kidwell-Dear Fir: some three months ago, through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottle-of Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a let ver from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He hinks under its use the di ease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of dis-tinction in Scotland and England, including Profes sors of Edinburg and Collleges, without relief. Th disea e was of three years standing, began in the right eneek, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely left him.

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britain which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Esq, Collydean, by Leslie Scotland in care of Messrs. Pentoed, Clay & Co., Druggists, N. York, who will forward it.

So extensive was the ulcers and so borrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abate ment of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen botties of your Beech Drap, after using t, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. D. the large and spacious store in Iron Hall, Pa it with perhaps the largest and best selected stock of Boots and Shoes ever exhibited in this city.

It is his determination to make this establishment excel in all particulars every other of the kind in the country. With this view he has made arrange ments for a regular supply of every article in his line of business with the most celebrated manufacturers in this country, and in future every variety of Boots and Shoes for Ladies, Gentlemen, Children and Servants may here be found at the very lowest

I beg leave to refer to the following commend-

Hoover's Shor Store.—Yesterday we made a visit to the place of business of Mr. S. P. Hoover, in that imposing structure, the Iron Building, on Peonsylvania avenue, between 9th and 10th streets. We have given this notice the modest caption of Shoe Store; but we can truly say that it is a most invit-ing, and even magnificent, establishment—one high-ly creditable to the city and to the taste and enterpuise of the proprietor We doubt if there is any of he large business marts of the country an establishment of the kind more extensive, convenient, or beautiful than the one it is our pleasure to notice.

The stock of Mr Hoover is large, and ladies and gentlemen can procure shoes and boots of the most surerior quality and at moderate prices. The enterprise of Mr. Hoover should be rewarded by a descriminating public. - Washington Union

IBOR HALL BOOT AND SHOE SALOOR -This establishment, just opened by Mr. S. P. Hoover, is one of the most extensive in the United States, the saloon being one hundred and thirty feet, with twenty-five teet front. Entering, one observes a long line of el egantly made shelves and counters, filled with the fashions of the day in the line. In the resr is the ladies' department, which is carpeted with three ply carpeting, seats and cushions covered with French moroe o, and, that the dear creatures may see themselves in all their beauty, as others see them, a magnificent mirror is suspended for their accommodation. The mirror, including the rich frame, is To Middleburg... eight feet high and three feet and a half wide. Here s, therefore, an unequalled boot and shoe saloon, and the stock therein is at least equal to any in style and manufacture. We were surprised to find so many varieties. There were ladies' high beeled Gaiters, Congress and Button Gaiters, with and without heels; ladies' "Glicerious" slippers, enamelied toilet, carpet, black and bronze French kid and morocco slippers, Jeffersons and ties, morocco boo's of all colors, &c , to suit every taste of the fair purchasers. For gentlemen, there are patent leather and calf skin boots, aid top and cloth Congress Gaiters, English patent leather and low quartered shoes. Suitable for boys we found youths' patent leather heeled pumps, button leather gaiters, Mun ross, Oxford and English ties, fine calf skin and cork soled boots. For girls, he has also a rich and general variety; and for intents and small children the beautiful little foot coverings are quite elegant. We were also shown an assortment of excellent those for servants. These, with boo -horks, button hooks, and shoe horns, all kinds of trunk, carpetbags, umbrellas, and other articles "to numerous to mention," as Shakspeare says, constitute the materi-al of this magnificent addition to the fine stores on Pennsylvania avenue. The stock is both of home and foreign manufacture, of the best, and sold as cheap as such understandings can be bought in the Northern cities - Evening Star.

NEW AND SPLENDID SHOE STORE -- Mr. S. P. Hoover having removed from his old stand to a new and elstore in Iron Hall, is now prepared to wait upon fashionable and substantial articles in his line of and rapid remedy ever employed in the extensive business. This new store, which is said to be the practice of Dr. McClintock For any of these largest of the hind in this country, is 130 feet long of disease, showing themselves as Cough, Tickling some as well as a spacious establishment.
